

Vietnamese rubber exports in July an increase of 42% to 8.5 million tons

Vietnamese rubber exports in July an increase of 42% to 8.5 million tons Hanoi, July 26, released Thursday by the General Statistics Office of Vietnam (General Statistics Office) data show that 85,000 tons, Vietnamese exports of rubber in July, up 42 percent compared with June, an increase of 6.3 percent from a year earlier. The data show that rubber exports in July increased by $ 170 million in June to $ 243 million. The export volume correction in June to 60,000 tons 65,000 tons, the former value. January to July this year, Vietnam's total rubber exports to 488,000 tons, an increase of 32%; exports of $ 1.451 billion, down 9.6% year on year.