

Nissan says China July auto sales down 2pct on yr ago

Aug 7 (Reuters) – Nissan Motor said on Tuesday it sold 98,100 vehicles in China in July, down 2 percent from a year earlier. Sales came to 776,100 in the first seven month, up 11.7 percent, it said in a statement. Nissan makes vehicles in China in partnership with Dongfeng Automobile Group Co. (Reporting by Fang Yan and Mark Bendeich; Editing by Nick Edwards)