

India imposes dumping duty on non-radial bias tyres from China, Thailand

NEW DELHI (Commodity Online): The Finance Ministry has imposed definitive anti-dumping duty on non-radial bias tyres (used in buses and trucks) from China and Thailand. This duty will be valid for a period of five years, the Revenue Department has said on Wednesday. The anti-dumping duty will also be applicable on certain tubes and flaps.

In the case of imports from Thailand, the anti-dumping duty has been pegged at $ 0.86/kg.

For imports from China, the anti-dumping duty has been pegged at $1.12/kg for tyres produced by Hangzhou Zhongce Rubber Co Ltd. In all other cases of imports from China, the anti-dumping duty has been pegged at $1.31/kg.
