

Nokian tires test well in Europe

Helsinki, Finland-based Nokian Tyres P.L.C. announced its tires earned a total of 17 “very good” and “good” results in the 2013 summer tire tests in Germany, Austria, and Switzerland. The company says Nokian tires are winners in the 2013 summer tire tests in German car magazines Auto Bild and auto TEST with top ratings “exemplary” and “auto TEST test winner 2013.” In addition, Nokian received the top rating “good” from the German automobile club ADAC and the consumer protection organization test Stiftung Warentest. Other results include runner-up in the test of Auto Motor Sport with the top rating “especially recommended,” a “very good” rating in the car magazine Auto, and the “especially recommended” rating in the company car magazine Firmenauto. For more information on Nokian’s performance in Europe’s summer tire tests, see the company’s website.